FOREWARD

Like many of the family, I was raised with very little knowledge of the background of my Rudisill ancestors. About all I did know for sure was my father's and grandfather's name when my curiosity prompted me to make some inquiries. My father did tell me the names of his grandfather and great-grandfather and their location in Illinois. After that, I found that I was on my own. Since I was born and raised in California, I never met anyone by this name other than immediate family members.

Not much happened in my quest for family history until about 1970, when my father received an advertisement from a woman genealogist offering some information on the family. He sent for it and received a two page list of Rudisill names and references to Revolutionary War service, but nothing to show any connection with us. Dad passed this tidbit on to me and I decided to see if I could make the connection.

At the time, I was doing a considerable amount of business traveling, so on one of my journeys I stopped off and took a side trip to Morgan County, Illinois, the location of the old family farm. I was fortunate to find Cousin Rose Hayes, a delightful old lady with a long memory. She promptly put me in contact with a number of the local descendants of my gr-gr-grandfather Daniel H. Rudisill and showed me his grave in Arcadia, Illinois, alongside of the graves of four of his reputed five wives.

Talking with Cousin Rose and the local Rudisill contingent produced an excellent history of the family descending from Daniel, who was born in 1799 in Pennsylvania. Here, the search came to a halt, as there was no knowledge of his parents or how he came to homestead a farm all by himself out in the middle of Illinois. The only clue they could offer was the story handed down that he had walked alone from Ohio to Illinois in 1830 and founded the farm in Arcadia. Someone also mentioned that they thought he came from Roscoe, Ohio, but there was nothing to document this statement.

I seized on the Roscoe, Ohio clue and wrote to the county clerk having jurisdiction of this old pioneering settlement. They had no record of anyone answering to that name, and it was over ten years later before I found Daniel's family and that he had walked from "Ross Co"unty, Ohio to Illinois!

Not having any luck with the Roscoe, Ohio approach, the next approach was to visit the New York City Public Library's genealogy section, where I found Laban Miles Hoffman's "OUR KIN".

Here was a veritable treasure chest of information on the Rudisills, in fact, there was a whole chapter on the family!
I dutifully copied down every family member in the book, looking for MY Daniel before realizing that all these folks were from the North Carolina branch and none of them went to Ohio. Not only that, Hoffman had very few dates and other factual data to back up the oral histories that he collected by visiting the families in the early 1900's.

Hoffman did trace the early North Carolina families back to Pennsylvania and indicated that they were of German descent. Armed with this information, I joined the New York Genealogical Society, and started looking in a more organized approach. Here, I found out about the U.S. Census records and a number of other information sources, among which were early Pennsylvania church records transcribed by Pastor Frederick S. Weiser, the Archivist of the Pennsylvania Lutheran Church. I eagerly copied all the Rudisill records I could glean from these resources, but still no trace of Daniel H. Rudisill. About this time, I was offered a four year work assignment in Paris, and all genealogical effort stopped until my return in 1979.

Deciding to have another go at Daniel's predecessors, I contacted Pastor Frederick Weiser and came to visit him in 1980. Luckily for the Rudisill Family, Fred is a direct descendant of Philip Heinrich Rudisill. Needless to say, as the foremost genealogist of the Pennsylvania Germans, he had a very large and well researched Rudisill file waiting for me, including the early history of the family in America, Germany and its Swiss ancestor, Hans Rüdisüli. After an afternoon of discussion and still not being able to find my Daniel, Pastor Weiser began to cautiously inquire as to my objectives regarding all the data that I was collecting. I told him that my objective was to find my own ancestry, but in the process, I had collected a lot of data which was of no direct use to me and would he be interested in taking what I had? Back came the suggestion that a thorough Rudisill genealogy was badly needed and maybe I should be the one to write it.

I thought about Pastor Weiser's suggestion and decided that since I had collected information on about 900 Rudisill family members, that there couldn't be too many more to obtain, and that with just a little more effort I could pull the rest together and accomplish what I had set out to do in the process. Anyway, I agreed to take on the task and borrowed Fred's file on the family. I think that Fred realized far better than I what the total task would be, and therefore kept his own counsel about the amount of work to be done. Nevertheless, I'm very glad he made the suggestion, as taking the measure of this family has been a most rewarding avocation. It's brought me the acquaintance of hundreds of the family, an awareness of our history, and a chance to document a real American pioneer family.

At the suggestion of Pastor Weiser, in 1991 I formed the Rudisill Family Association, which had several objectives. First, to establish communication with all the family for whom I could obtain a mailing address. This is turn allowed me to gather data about the family from all who responded and to determine the level of interest for a major family genealogy. After combing the nation's telephone directories and purchasing a partial mail list, I sent out over 1400 letters of invitation. About 150 replies were received, of which 100 paid a modest enrollment fee which entitled them to my services to search for their link to the family tree and a printout of their line of descent. The members and any other interested persons also received newsletters describing the progress of the project and news of the family that was thought to be of general interest.

The funds received from the enrollment fees were used to defray a good part of the pre-publication expenses, which were considerable. The responders also received formatted sheets to submit their family data. When these were returned, they provided excellent source documentation for the file. In many cases, a lively correspondence ensued which has been most rewarding to me.

There are two primary reasons why this genealogy has been made as complete as it is: A tremendous amount of help from many people, and the advent of the personal computer during this time period. I know a few genealogists who have done works of this magnitude with little help and no computer, but I am not one of them. The personal computer has been a Godsend because of its ability to store millions of words and numbers, retrieve them on command based on search criteria, organize them into coherent reports and print out the data in a form suitable for publication.

Our family has many branches, distinguished by geographical area and spelling of the name. This genealogy attempts to document members of all of these branches which descend from Hans Rüdisüli, our common ancestor, and who emigrated to America with the Palatine Migration of the early 1700's. As the family began to propagate and move out from its York and Dauphin Counties base, name changes became common, as many of the early family were illiterate and were dependent on others to interpret the name phonetically for wills and deeds. Once in the legal system, these names with different spellings were passed down and they are every bit as valid as the core spelling of Rudisill. After all, Rudisill is just another variation of the Swiss Rüdisüli and the German Rudisile. This book documents about 40 variations of the name and it has been a major problem to determine when bonafide name changes did occur vis-a-vis occasional spelling errors of previously established names.

The early Virginia Rudisill clan became known as Rudacillet, Rudacille and Rudasill, plus a few other variations.

Those of the family who migrated to western Pennsylvania and along the eastern Ohio border changed the name to Rudesill.

Another pioneer who left Lancaster County for greener or larger pastures was Michael Rudisill, who first journeyed forth to Washington County, PA, which turned into Fayette County and then to Green County. Apparently, he became tired of chopping trees and stump burning and put his family on the boat to drift down the Mononghela and Ohio Rivers to Cincinnati, where they got off and struck out for the fertile plains of Indiana. Along the way, the family name changed from Rudisill to Rudicel and Rudisel, thereby starting two more branches of the family.

In the Rudicel family, there appears to have been a rift between the grandsons of Michael over their father's sanity and estate, with the result that some of the family deliberately changed their name from Rudicel to Rudicil in order to proclaim which side of the argument they represented.

The North Carolina Rudisills by and large did not have the urge to get up and move out when the land was settled. As a result, they still represent the largest concentration of the family in all the states, mainly as residents of Lincoln, Gaston, Hickory, Mecklenburg and Rowan Counties. To be sure, some did move to South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Missouri and a few other states. One family that moved to Missouri wanted to be a little different and changed the name to Rudisaile. In a like manner, some of those who pushed on to South Carolina did a name change from Rudisill to Rudeseal.

There are some major segments of the Rudisill population that have not been researched or covered in this genealogy. There are number of African-Americans who bear the name as a result of being descendants of southern farm workers who took the American names of their plantation owners. Since this book journals the blood descendants of Hans Rüdisüli, these Rudisills are not included. Also, there were a number of immigrants from Switzerland who settled in the Midwest the late 1800's bearing the name Rüdisühli, and these people were omitted for the same reason. Ther are also a number of Europeans, mostly German, who have similar name spellings, such as Reudisile, Ruedesile, Radichel, etc. These immigrants may very well be descendants of Hans Rüdisühli, but they came over at least 100 years later and were not considered to be a part of the pioneer Rudisill family.

The real bone of contention which will surely be raised about this work is that it primarily traces the male line of descent. I have absolutely no defense against the argument that the descendants of female Rudisills are just as valid descendants of Hans Rüdisüli as the males who bear the name and are the basis of this genealogy. It was simply a matter of practicality that I could not research each individual descendant. If you look at the mathmatics of 11 or 12 generations, including all the female line of descent would result in a population of at least 100,000 persons to research. Also, the legal and census records usually listed just the first name of the wife, making the tracking extremely difficult and time consuming.

Where possible, I have listed the maiden names and vital data of the wives of Rudisill males, the names and data of the husbands of Rudisill females and their children. As a result, about half of the data base members do not bear the family name. In this way, people who are researching their families with a Rudisill connection should be able to find their links into and out of this line.

It is hoped that this genealogy will be helpful to all who have a connection to this family.

I make no pretence that the data are absolutely accurate, as it comes from many sources, often with conflicting information. My plan is to maintain the central data base and distribute addendums to interested parties in the future as more people are added and better information becomes available.

The sheer size of the data base, almost 12,000 persons, posed a problem concerning the organization of this book. With the limitations imposed by the capacity of my data processing equipment, it was necessary to split the data into manageable segments. An analysis of the data volumes showed that the fourth generation families could be adequately handled by the software required to format the file data for publishing. This was satisfactory for several reasons, as it was desirable to have a chapter on our Swiss heritage, another on our German ancestry and the rest on our American history.
It just happened that our American born ancestors started in the fourth generation of Hans Rüdisüli. Therefore, each of the fourth generation families has its own chapter, without regard to surname spelling.

There is also the problem of where to place the individuals for whom parents have not been determined and their descendants. My approach to this is to list these individuals in the Master File and Index at the end of the book. This provides valuable information of use to people doing additional research on the family.

The Rudisill Family Association will continue to operate as it has for the forseeable future, to maintain contact and obtain new and corrected information. I believe that this organization has helped to engender not only knowledge but also a sense of togetherness and pride in our family. In 1995, 14 of the family took a tour of Germany and Switzerland which included stops at the localities known to Hans Rüdisüli and his European descendants. Another worthwile activity of the organization is the encouragement to restore and maintain some of the private Rudisill cemeteries, which have fallen to the ravages of time, weather and developers.

There will no doubt arise cries of indignation regarding the errors which are sure to be found when this book is published. To those I reply, "Where were you when I was making every effort to contact every family in the United States to obtain the facts before I wrote the book?"

To those who would like me to correct the errors to suit their version of the facts, I would like to quote from the Houghton Genealogy, published in 1912 by Dr. John W. Houghton:

"We hope that all errors that may be discovered by any of our readers will be reported to us promptly. ... This will enable any future genealogist, who has a surplus of time, and a small fortune he wishes to invest, for the glory and the good of the family, to make the record more accurate.

This is a case in which no individual prepares a second edition of his work. He leaves this for the next man who has not had this experience.

My great satisfaction is in the fact that I have in some measure aided in saving a large amount of family history from certain destruction in a few years, which in its present form will be preserved for many generations to come." Well said, Dr. Houghton!

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The real motivation to succeed in this venture is the effort so many of the family devoted to the hard research required to gather the data, much of it not applying to their own direct line. Space here allows me only to list some of the major contributors, but I have attempted to provide credit for all the contributors in the references for each family unit. If I have not given credit where credit is due, please accept my apology.

First, if it were not for Pastor Frederick S. Weiser, this project would never have been undertaken by me. It was he who had the knowledge, insight and interest to research the very beginning of this American family, and who discovered the German and Swiss background of our immigrant ancestors. Furthermore, he has been a continuing resource of knowledge and advice all the way through the project, without which it undoubtedly would not have succeeded. In addition, I have found him to be a warm, witty and compassionate individual whose friendship I have treasured over the years.

The project received another jump start when Robert C. Carpenter completed his research on the major families of Lincoln County, North Carolina and the surrounding areas with the publishing of his book, "CARPENTERS A'PLENTY". Carpenter's work, in many ways, paralleled that of Laban Miles Hoffman, the author of "OUR KIN", as he researched many of the same families in the same general area. What makes "CARPENTERS A'PLENTY" so important is that it was written by an experienced genealogist who thoroughly documented his work with hard data. "CARPENTERS A'PLENTY" is a monumental book which records data on over 50,000 people of the North Carolina area from the 1700's to 1980. His contribution to the Rudisill family has been enormous because of the size of our clan in that part of the country. Robert Carpenter has generously given permission to use his data for this genealogy, and you will see hundreds of references to his book.

Elayne Alexander was my first and very important collaborator in my early quest for information. She is a direct Rudisill descendant, an experienced genealogist, historian, author and photographer. Elayne did almost all of the 1850-1900 U.S. Census retrievals for the states where there known members of the family and indexing was available. If the reader has ever tried to read the old census microfilms with faint and illegible handwriting, incredibly poor spelling and incomplete information, you will have some idea of the difficulties she encountered. I tried very hard to get her to co-author this volume, but unfortunately she had undertaken a totally time consuming project to write the history of Venice, California.

Brian Victor Rudisill singlehandedly extracted the 1920 U.S. Census data for the entire family, and in doing so saved many months of effort by not doing it piecemeal.

Major contributors of data for the northern Virginia clan of the family have been Mildred Shuall Rudasill, Lois Rudisill, Mary Lou Kuhn and John Philip Rudacille.

I deeply appreciate the many hours of research given by Lt. Col. Chandler Rudicel and his niece, Eveylyn Rudicel Armstrong, to provide important contributions about the Rudicels. I regret that Chandler died just a few months prior to the publication of this book, to which he contributed so much in data and encouragement.

My good friend, Thelma Sintz, wrote and published the genealogy of Edward C. Rudicil and his descendants. Thelma's interest in the family has has been a constant inspiration as she has continued to work diligently to help with the overall research required for this genealogy.

Max Rudisaile and his sister, Dorothy, have come to my assistance to document their part of the line.

Iris Rudeseal and her husband Pat have provided most of the information on this family line.

Back to the original immigrant name, there have been a host of contributors of their immediate family data who have spent an incredible number of hours to put their information into my desired format and search for credible documentation. Some of the outstanding contributors are Harry Theodore Rudisill, Barbara S. Rudisill, Esq., Fannie Farris, Jackie Rudisaile, Ava and Sara Stockman, Lisa Garrett, Marge Barringer, Hillyer Rudisill, III, Rick Jannelle, Kim Lee, Richard Shindle, George Lipe, Ray and Greta McAdams.

Last, and winning a special place in my memory, is Dorothy Barger, who sent me a letter in 1982, with the information that I had been seeking about Daniel Harr Rudisill, who left Chilicothe, Ohio, after his first wife of just one year had died, and set out on foot to find the farm land of his dreams. It's no wonder that I had trouble in determining his ancestry. His father migrated from his parent's farm in Maryland to Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, where few records were left, married there and had Daniel, their first child. When Daniel was 10 years old, the family moved to Ohio where they probably worked on other peoples' farms. When this family finally settled in Winchester, Ohio, Daniel had already departed for Illinois.

Special thanks are due to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, also known as the Mormon Church. This organization established and maintains the largest genealogical resource library in the world as a consequence of their religious convictions. Not only do they gather source data from all over the world, they generously allow non-Mormons total access to this huge data bank at all their libraries and they provide excellent genealogical software for personal computer users at minimal cost. I have been an enthusiastic user of their Personal Ancestry File (PAF) from its earliest version on to the latest. The people of this organization have been of great help to me and I wish to express my sincere appreciation.

OUR SWISS BEGINNING

In the desire to chronicle the history of our family in America, it seems appropriate to start this volume with a description and background of the family of our common progenitor, Hans Rüdisüli. The following was researched and written by Pastor Weiser following his examination of many Swiss church and census documents.

First of all, we are fairly sure that the name originated from "Rudi's Ulrich", where Ulrich may have been a resident of the village of Rüthi, located about 6 kilometers from Frümsen, or he may have been related to a Rudi (Rudy or Rudolph) as a member of his family or employed in some other capacity. We have no knowledge of when this name originated, as the existing records as we now know them start in the early seventeenth century. However, since there were quite a good number of people having derivatives of this name when our records began, it is possible that the name had been in use for several centuries. The spelling of the name is almost always "Rüdis-Üli" in the early 17th century and later simplified to "Rüdisüli".

The first families so named apparently came from the village of Frümsen, located along the Rhine River as it flows north and within eyeshot of the principality of Lichtenstein and its capital, Vaduz. Today, all the principal groups of this family can be shown to have their roots in this town. Frümsen is part of the church parish of Sax, a nearby town, and within the Kanton St. Gallen. Sax and Frümsen were in Kanton Zürich in the 1600's because the rulers of Zürich took over the little principality of Sax-Forstegg from 1615 until 1798.

In order to clarify the ancestry of Hans, the records of Frümsen were examined. The oldest surviving Sax Evangelical Reformed Church register there was begun by a new pastor, Hans Jacob Freytag, who began his ministry on 5 December 1638. He calls it clearly as a "new" register, so that there was an earlier, and presumably lost record. In addition, there are census lists of the population which survive from 1635, 1637, 1640, 1643, 1646, 1650, 1671, 1678 and later. There is also a set of lists of persons who left the parish, written in 1657, which is of direct pertinence to our inquiry.

From these documents, it becomes clear that Hans Rüdisüli, who later migrated to Germany and finally settled in the town of Michelfeld, whence his grandsons and great-grandsons came to Pennsylvania, was baptized as an infant at Frümsen on 20 April, 1643, the son of Thomman and Anna Torgklerin Rüdisüli. In the census records for several years we may gain insight in the the growing size of this family, and if we wished, into the other families of this name living in this village which had 329 souls in 1678.

The death register at the Sax Evangelical Reformed Church lists a Thomman Rüdisüli, Sr. ("Alt") who died on 1 April 1649. The term "alt" does not mean "father" as it might be interpreted in English, but merely the older of two Thommans in the village. Then there is the death of Thomman, presumably the father of Hans and his siblings, who died 16 October 1653, and of "Anna Torgklerin, Thomman Rüdisüli's surviving widow in Frümsen", on 24 March, 1679. No records have been found which names the parents of either Thomman or Anna, or either of their birth or marriage dates. We can estimate that they were married about 1630-1632, Thomman's birth about 1605 and Anna's birth about 1605-1610.

The family name, "Torgkler", is not found otherwise in the registers for Sax or Frümsen; it is likely that she came from some nearby village. At the time of this writing, we believe that Anna Torgkler came from the area of Berneck, a village located about 25 kilometers to the north along the Rhine. There were a number of families by that name in Berneck and nearby St. Margrethen in the 1500s. The name "Torgkler" comes from the word "torkel", a wine or cider press, and the people who operated them were called torklers. There are vinyards in Berneck, so that the name Torkler has a relationship to this area. The surname was spelled "Torggler" in the 1600s.

Our search for Anna's family has concentrated on the parish baptismal records of the Reformed Church of Berneck , which appears to be the primary repository of data for that area, including the hamlets of Aue and Hasloch where eight or nine Torkler child bearing families resided in the time frame of Anna's birth. Pastor Weiser found two Anna Torgglers, one baptized 25 Dec 1606, the other baptized 28 Feb 1603. Since our Anna had her last child in 1649, it virtually rules out the Anna who was born in 1603, as she would have been 46 years old at that date.

Therefore, we are reasonably satisfied that our Anna was born to Jacob Torggler and Verena Nollin, baptized 25 Dec 1606, and had Balthazar Zellwegen and Anna Engsterin as her sponsors. We have not been able to find marriage or burial records for this area until 1658 and it is doubtful if they exist today. This Anna's siblings were:

Ursel, 18
Hanss, 14"

Since the list was dated 1657, the ages of the children agree with those listed for the family of Thomman and Anna Torklerin. If Pastor Freytag's chronology is correct, then our Hans actually departed Switzerland at the age of eight years.

The census enumerations for 1671 and 1678 reveal more detail:

Anna Torgklerin, Thomman Rüdisüli's widow and her children, Andres }
Hans } - dienend, serving (working) in Württemberg land.
Thomma}

Thrina
Barbel, 25

Thewas Rüdisüli
wife, Barbara Wälkin
Anna, 2
Johannes, infant
This person with wife and children live at Beyth Kirch in Swabia.

Apparently, by 1671 Ursula and Anna had died and Thrina, who was about 33 years and Barbel, about 25 years, were unmarried at home. The others were living in Germany.

1678

Anna Torklerin and her children
Hans, Ao 43 [=born 1643] in the Palatinate
Thomman, Ao 45 [=born 1645] near Strasburg, moved 13 April, 1675
Thrina, with her mother

Andres Rüdisüli
Barbel Rufenerin [his wife] move around in the land

Thewus Rüdisüli
Barbel Wälkin [his wife]

Anna, Ao 1669 [b. 1669], here with her grandmother

Johannes, Ao 1670 12 September, working at Sonthoffen in Bavaria in the Allgäu with Scheräfer [There is a town Sonthofen in Bavaria in the Allgäu near Kempten where Thewus was apparently living.]

We may summarize the children of Thomman and Anna Torklerin Rüdisüli as follows:

1. Andreas, b. ca. 1633 Married Barbel Rufenerin, emigrated to Swabia in 1651, lived in Württenberg and apparently returned to Switzerland.

2. Mattheus, b. ca 1635 Married Barbel Wälkin about 1665. In Germany in 1651, lived in Württenberg then moved to Bavaria.

3. Thrina, b. ca 1638 Accompanied brothers to Swabia in 1651, but returned to Switzerland by 1671.

4. Ursula, bp. 10 January, 1639 Accompanied brothers to Swabia in 1651. Probably died before 1671, as there was no mention of her in succeeding censuses.

5. Anna, bp. 5 March 1640 Probably died in infancy.

6. Anna, bp. 12 July 1641. May have died young or married outside of the household, as there is no mention of her after 1650.

7. Hans, bp. 20 April 1643

8. Thomman, bp. 31 July 1644 Emigrated to Württenberg prior to 1671, then moved to a place near Strasburg on 13 April 1675.

9. Barbel, bp. 26 June 1649 Lived with her mother. No record of her marriage or death.

History tells us that the movement of many Swiss people into what is now southern Germany was occasioned by the lack of sufficient nourishment in Switzerland and the potential opportunity in Germany caused by the Thirty Years War which depopulated that area.

The Frümsen-Sax area is still a quiet rural community today, and will undoubtedly remain so because there are no large cities nearby to cause the growth of bustling suburbs or industrial plants. With the exception of the neat little Evangelical Reformed Church of Sax and the Gastof Schlossi, one is hard pressed to find any other activity except farming.

The church itself is quite interesting. It consists of three major components: a bell tower, the chancel and the nave, all built at different times. The bell tower was originally constructed in the 11th or 12th century as a fortification and observation post for the area. It was incorporated as part of the church when the chancel was built adjacent to it in 1615. The present nave was completed in 1667, but there is no knowledge of a prior nave which must have existed.

The graveyard is on both sides of the church and is meticulously maintained. It contains many Rüdisühli headstones. However, these are relatively recent monuments, as the Swiss and German custom is to dig up the old graves whenever the graveyard is full to make room for the current generations. For years, the ancestral bones were stored in the lower portion of the bell tower, but were recently removed to provide room for a parish activity room.

The church is well attended and efficiently administered by an attentive staff. Visitors are warmly welcomed and provided with copies from their excellent records upon request. When the author visited the church in 1992, an American, Pastor Dennis, was their pastor as part of an exchange program. On a return visit in 1995, Pastor Dennis had returned to the United States and the Pastor Werner Zehnder had resumed his duties in the parish. The church address is, "Pfarrhaus, CH-9468 Sax, Switzerland."

Gasthof Schlossi, the local bar, restaurant and hotel for the area is a quaint country inn whose dining room walls are adorned with coats of arms of area families. These were painted by a local artist who asserted that she had "obtained them from the local archives." She claimed to have painted one for the Rüdisühli family, but that it had been sold and removed from the Gasthof Schlossi. She would be only too happy to paint another for 350 Swiss Francs. A word of caution here; in the Germanic countries, coats of arms were awarded for specific acts of heroism or service and these given only to the individual so honored, and did not apply to the rest of the family. It is unlikely that the simple farmers of Sax would receive such homages.

THE GERMAN DESCENDANTS OF HANS RÜDISÜLI, OUR PROGENITOR

FIRST GENERATION

1. HANS[1] RŪDISŪLI, bp. 20 Apr 1643, in Frümsen, Sax Parish, Kanton St Gallen, Switzerland. Died, 26 May 1723, in Michelfeld, Germany. Burial in Michelfeld, Germany. According to the parish records at the Sax Evangelical Reformed Church, Hans Rüdisüli was the son of Thomman Rūdisūli and Anna Torkler(in). His sponsors were Hans Rüdisüli (probably an uncle) and Ursula Wolwerdin. It is unlikely that tombstones exist for Hans and his family, as it is the custom in Switzerland and Germany to clear out the older graves to make room for the current gnerations. The parents and siblings of Hans Rüdisüli are enumerated in the prior section of this book.

Hans left Frümsen and emigrated with two brothers and two sisters to Germany in 1651. The most reasonable assumption for their departure from Switzerland is the general lack of food supply in the area at the time. Many people did leave about that time because of religious persecution. This does not seem likely here, as this family was affiliated with the Evangelical Reformed Church in Sax, which was the acceptable religion for this area. What is known is that a number of this family did leave the Frümsen area and emigrated to Germany, Italy and elsewhere in Switzerland, as some of the early census records listed those who had departed and their destination. The choice of Germany as their destination may have been motivated by the knowledge of a severe manpower shortage which existed after the exhausting Thirty Years War.[7]

In the case of our Hans Rüdisüli, Pastor Freytag of the Evangelical Church listed, in 1657, > "Tomman Rüdisühli children serving in Swabia, going to the Brunnsbach church, moved there 24 November 1651.

>
> Andreas 24
> Matheus 22
> Thrina 19
> Ursel 18
> Hanss 14"

The ages of the children the above list agrees with the baptismal records of the children of Thomman and Anna Torklerin Rüdisüli. Later Swiss census records indicated that this group initially settled in Württenberg, Germany.

The first record of Hans Rüdisüli in Germany was that of a church communion record at Hillsbach, Germany, which recorded his age of 16 years. Hans later settled in Michelfeld, Germany, which is a small town near Heidelberg. It is doubted if any of his siblings from Württenberg came with him, as the Michelfeld church records show only those of Hans. Work done by Pastor Frederick Weiser of New Oxford, Pa. suggest that Hans may have settled first in Angeloch (now Waldangeloch), a few km to the south of Michelfeld. Hans was listed in Michelfeld as a citizen and judge.

The spelling of the surname of his children varies from Rüdisile to Riedisiele to Rüdisühle in the church records at Michelfeld in an apparent attempt to "Germanize" the Swiss name, just as we have done in America. The most common spelling of the surname in Switzerland today is "Rüdisühli". There are still Rüdisühli families in the villages of Frümsen and Sax, Kanton St. Gallen. The current generation in the Michelfeld, Germany spells the surname as "Rüdisühle". For purposes of consistency and reference to the early Michelfeld church records, this genealogy will spell the surname of our ancestors who were born in Germany as "Rüdisile".

He married, first, Anna Liebeld, 30 Jan 1665/6 in Michelfeld, Germany. Born, circa 1647, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, circa 1687, in Michelfeld, Germany. Christened, circa 1647, in Michelfeld, Germany. Burial in Michelfeld, Germany. Anna Liebeld was the daughter of Wendel Liebeld and Apollinia.[1]

Children:

2. i. Hans Jakob[2] Rüdisile
   ii. Hans Wendel Rüdisile, b. 15 Nov. 1668, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 9 Apr. 1743, in Michelfeld, Germany. He married Maria Catharina in (Wald)Angeloch, Germany.
   iii. Adolf Rüdisile, b. 16 Nov. 1671, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, circa 1680, in Michelfeld, Germany. Burial in Michelfeld, Germany.
   iv. Hans Jorge Rüdisile, b. 10 May 1674, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 7 Oct 1674, in Michelfeld, Germany.
   v. Johann Rüdisile, b. 15 May 1679, in Michefeld, Germany.
3. vi. Johann Leonhard Rüdisile
   vii. Hans Jorg Rüdisile, b. 19 Jun 1686, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 24 Jan 1688 in Michelfeld, Germany.

He married, second, Anna Katharina Klees, 6 Mar 1688 in Michelfeld, Germany. b. circa 1650, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 2 Nov 1710, in Michelfeld, Germany. No issue.

2. Hans Jakob[2] Rūdisile (Hans, 1), b. 4 Oct 1666, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 16 Sep 1748, in Michelfeld, Germany. Hans Jakob Rüdisile was listed as a citizen and a carpenter.[1]

He married Cleophe Neff, 19 Feb 1687/8 in Michelfeld, Germany. b. 9 Sep 1671, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 6 Feb 1758, in Michelfeld, Germany. Burial in Michelfeld, Germany. Cleophe Neff was the daughter of Ulrich Neff and Katharina Endris. Ulrich Neff was the son of Rudolf and Regina Neff. Katharina Endris was the daughter of Mathias Endris and Anna Maria Hoffman. Anna Maria Hoffman was the daughter of Michael and Anna Hoffman.
Children:

i. Anna Catharina[3] Rūdisile, b. 3 Aug 1689, in Michelfeld, Germany.
4 ii. Hans Michael Rūdisile, b. 11 Mar 1692, died 25 Mar 1747.
5 iii. Weyrich Rūdisile, b. 7 Aug 1695.
6 iv. Philipp Heinrich Rūdisile b. 24 Sep 1697.
v. Hans Georg Rūdisile, b. 7 May 1701, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 27 Sep 1788, in Michelfeld.
vi. Maria Catharina Rūdisile, b. 29 Nov 1703, in Michelfeld, Germany.
7 vii. Johan Jacob Rūdisile, b. 10 Apr 1706.
viii. Catharina Rūdisile, b. 2 Aug 1708, in Michelfeld, Germany.
ix. Johann Philip Rūdisile, b. 27 Mar 1711, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 26 Oct 1735, in Michelfeld.
8 x. Anna Catharina Rūdisile, b. 27 Jul 1713, in Michelfeld, Germany.
xi. Mattaus Rūdisile, b. circa 1718, in Michelfeld, Germany.

3. Johann Leonhard[2] Rūdisile (Hans, 1), b. 5 Sep 1679, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 26 May 1725, in Michelfeld, Germany. Burial in Michelfeld, Germany. He married Sophia Koller, 12 Feb 1708/9 in Michelfeld, Germany. Born, circa 1685, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 8 Mar 1754, in Michelfeld.[1]
Children:
9 i. Johann Jakob[3] Rūdisile
ii. Anna Katharine Rūdisile
iii. Christina Catharine Rūdisile

4. Hans Michael[3] Rūdisile (Hans Jakob, 2). Born, 11 Mar 1692 in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 25 Mar 1747, in Michelfeld, Germany[1]

He married Anna Elisabetha Voreuter in Michelfeld, Germany. Born in Michelfeld, Germany.
Children:

10 i. Andreas[4] Rūdisile.

5. Weyrich[3] Rūdisile (Hans Jakob, 2). Born, 7 Aug 1695, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, circa 1764, in Lincoln, NC. Burial: circa 1764, in Smith Cemetery, Lincoln, NC.[1,2,3] "Weyrich Rüdisile with his wife and children went 13 May 1737 to Pennsylvania." Weyrich and family arrived in Philadelphia on 30 August, 1737 aboard the ship "Samuel", where he signed the oath of renunciation to European authorities as "Weirich Rutisieli". They resided in York, Pa. until about 1754, when Weyrich and his son, Philip Jakob were granted land in Lincoln County, North Carolina. Family history, (oral), relates that Weyrich's wife, Barbara, died in York before he moved to North Carolina. On May 20, 1754, he received a land grant for 200 acres in Anson County, at the upper reaches of Hoyles Creek, where he stayed for the rest of his life.

He married Barbara Siegfried, 13 Sep 1718, in Michelfeld, Germany. Born, 9 May 1696, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, before 1754, in York, York, Pa.
Children:

11 i. John[4] Rūdisile.
12 ii. Elizabeth Rūdisile.
13 iii. Johann Michael Rūdisile.
14 iv. Johann Weyrich Rūdisile.
v. Anna Catharina Rūdisile. Born, 12 May 1729, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 1 Jul 1730, in Michelfeld, Germany.
15 vi. Philip Jakob Rūdisile.
vii. Johan Georg Rūdisile. Born, 8 Feb 1734 in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 16 Feb 1734 in Michelfeld, Germany.
viii. Johann Georg Rūdisile. Born, 4 Sep 1734, in Michelfeld, Germany. No additional information, probably died young.
16 ix. Anna Johanna "Hannah" Rūdisile.

6. Philipp Heinrich[3] Rūdisile (Hans Jakob, 2). Born, 24 Sep 1697, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 1755, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster, Pa. Baptized, 24 Sep 1697, in Michelfeld, Germany. Burial in Manheim Township, Lancaster, Pa.[1,2,4,5,7] Emigrated with child, George Philip, from Weiler-am-Stein, Germany, to Philadelphia, arriving 21 September, 1727 aboard the "William and Sarah". His name appears on the ship's manifest as Filib Rutschly. Philipp settled in Manheim Twp. and attended Trinity Lutheran Church in Lancaster, Pa. His will was written 23 Sep 1755 and it was probated 11 Nov 1755. Probably buried in the private cemetery located near his former home at the present site of the Lancaster water works.

He married, first, Anna Maria Schopff, 14 Apr 1722, in Weiler-am-Stein, Germany. She died, circa 1725, in Weiler-am-Stein, Germany.
Children:

i. Georg Philip[4] Rüdisile. Born, 30 Mar 1723, in Weiler-am-Stein, Germany. Died, before 1725, in Weiler-am-Stein, Germany.

17 ii. Georg Philip Rüdisile.

He married, second, a woman not yet identified, circa 1728, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster Co. Born, circa 1702. This wife of Philipp Heinrich Rüdisile died between 1730, when her daughter, Maria Barbara, was born and Oct 1734, when he married Susanna Beyer.

At this point, we see the first American born descendants of Hans Rüdisüli. The most common spelling of the surname of the early American members of the family was "Rudisill", and this spelling will be used until the documentation consistently shows a surname spelling shifts within specific branches to the numerous variants which are used today.
Children:

iii. Maria Barbara Rudisill. Born, circa 1729, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster, Pa.

18 iv. Anna Barbara Rudisill.

19 v. Anna Maria Rudisill.

He married, third, Susanna Beyerin, 29 Oct 1734, in Conestoga, Lancaster, Pa. Born, circa 1705, in Germany. Died, 8 Jan 1768, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster Co., Pa. Susannah Beyer arrived aboard the ship "Pennsylvania Merchant" at Philadelphia on 11 Sep 1732. Probably buried with husband at private cemetery located at present site of Lancaster water works. No stone. She was a member of the Reformed Church of Lancaster. Died intestate; estate settled in 1768, Lancaster Co, Pa.
Children:

20 vi. Anna Catharina Rudisill.

21 vii. John Michael Rudisill.

22 viii. John Melchior Rudisill.

23 ix. John Jacob Rudisill.

24 x. Susanna Rudisill.

xi. Susanna Catharina Rudisill. Born, circa 1750, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster, Pa. Died, 12 Oct 1758, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster, Pa.

7. Johan Jacob[3] Rūdisile (Hans Jakob, 2). Born, 10 Apr 1706, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, circa 1787, in York, York, Pa.[8,9] Johan Jacob arrived in Philadelphia aboard the ship "Mortonhouse" on 17 August, 1729, listed on the manifest as "Hance Jacob Roatslice". It is possible that Johan Jacob had more than one wife although the records only indicate that he had one. At least four of his children were veterans of the Revolutionary war. Johan Jacob attended Christ Lutheran Church in York, Pa.

He married Elizabeth Hamsbacher, circa 1733, in Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa. Born, circa 1717. Elizabeth apparently had a brother, Tobias, married to Sarah. Elizabeth and Jacob sponsored Elizabeth Hamsbacher, born to Tobias and Sarah, on 8 Dec 1745.

Children:

25 i. Jacob[4] Rudisill.
26 ii. Tobias Rudisill.
27 iii. Jonas Rudisill.
28 iv. John Philip Rudisill.
29 v. Barbara Rudisill.

vi. Anna Catharina Rudisill. Born, 5 May 1742, in York, York, Pa. Christened in Lancaster, Lancaster, Pa. She married John Raber, 15 Apr 1760, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa.

vii. Elizabeth Rudisill. Born, circa 1743, in York, York, Pa. Died, 1 Sep 1838, in York, Pa. She married Michael Ebert, 7 Aug 1764, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa.

30 viii. Susanna Rudisill.
31 ix. Balthazar "Baltzer" Rudisill.

x. Maria Barbara Rudisill. Born, circa 1746, in York, York, Pa. Died, 19 Jun 1762, in York, Pa. Burial in Christ Lutheran, Churchyard.

xi. Thomas Rudisill. Born, 5 Nov 1748, in York, Pa. Died, 10 May 1752, in York, Pa. Baptized, 18 Dec 1748, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa.

xii. Maria Dorothea Rudisill. Born, 11 Feb 1751 in York, York, Pa. Baptized, 17 Mar 1751 at Christ Lutheran, Church, Pa. She married George Meyer.

xiii. Rebecca Rudisill. Born, 16 Jun 1753, in York, York, Pa. Baptized, 5 Aug 1753, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa. Probably moved to Taneytown, Md. with Tobias, as a Rebecca is listed as a communicant at Taneytown.

32 xiv. John Henry Rudisill.
33 xv. Anna Maria Rudisill.

8. Anna Catharina[3] Rüdisile (Hans Jakob, 2). Born, 27 Jul 1713, in Michelfeld, Germany.[1,293]

She married Georg Friedrich Hornberger, 30 Mar 1728, in Michelfeld, Sinsheim, Germany. Born, circa 1710, in Germany.
Children:

i. Stefan[4] Hornberger. Born, 11 Jun 1734, in Michelfeld, Sinsheim, Germany. Died, 11 Jul 1781, in E. Hempfield Twp, Lancaster, Pa. Married Magdalena Shallenberger, had son Stefan, b. 22 Jul 1766.

9. Johann Jakob[3] Rüdisile (Johann Leonhard, 3). Born, 12 Feb 1715 in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, circa 1807, in Codorus Twp, York, Pa.[1,2,8,10] Jakob and family arrived in Philadelphia aboard the ship, "The Brothers" on 22 September 1752. He was naturalized on 22 March 1761. Will of John Jakob Rüdisile registered at York Co. He married Christina Regula ____, 2 Feb 1740 in Michelfeld, Germany.
Children:

34 i. Johann Ludwig[4] Rüdisile.
ii. Anna Elizabetha Rüdisile. Born, 5 Nov 1742, in Michelfeld, Germany. She married Abraham Roth.
iii. Johann Jacob Rüdisile. Born, 23 Apr 1745, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, 27 Mar 1748, in Michelfeld.
iv. Johann Jacob Rüdisile. Born, 30 Mar 1748, in Michelfeld, Germany.
v. Johann Leonhard Rüdisile. Born, 15 Aug 1751, in Michelfeld, Germany. d.y.
vi. Elizabeth Rudisill. Born, 22 Aug 1752, at Sea, Atlantic Ocean. (Elizabeth would have to have been born at sea if her reported birth date is correct, as her parents arrived in Philadelphia aboard "The Brothers" on 22 Sep 1752.)
vii. John Leonard Rudisill. Born, 6 Jan 1754, in Codorus Twp, York Co. Christened, 13 Jan 1754, in Christ Lutheran Church, York, Pa.
35 viii. Tobias Rudisill.
36 ix. John Rudisill.

8. John Weiry[7] Rudisill (John, 6). Born, 1 May 1823, in Powelton, Hancock, Ga. Died, 24 Apr 1885, in Anniston, Al.[15,16]
John Weiry Rudisill was company commander in CSA during Civil War, First Regiment, Ga. Was wounded at Second Battle of Cold Harbor. He was mustered in on May 1, 1862 at Sandersville, Ga. His company was redesignated (2nd) Co. "C" and assigned to the 12th Battalion, Georgia Light Artillery. In Jan 1863, the company was redesignated as (3rd) Company "B", 12th battalion Georgia Volunteers. This unit was assigned as part of the coastal defense network along the SC coast, taking part in action at Battery Wagner, Morris Island and Ft. Sumter. He took medical leave in Sep 1863, his illness certified by his brother and battallion surgeon, Dr. Benjamin F. Rudisill, as having chronic hepatitis. Captain Rudisill's superior, a Maj. Stephen Elliott, Commander Artillery, Ft Sumter, didn't buy the diagnosis, as he wrote a letter to the Confederate Secretary of War, doubting the illness and recommended the captain's arrest and return. Although there was no sign that this request was honored, Captain Rudisill was back on active duty in Jan 1864. He was captured in the Battle of Fishers Hill, Va, 22 Sep 1864, and was a POW at Ft Delaware, DE, until 10 Jun 1865, when he signed an oath of allegiance to the U.S.A. He was a brilliant lawyer and member of the GA legislature before the Civil War. Lived in Forsythe, GA and taught school until 1883, when he moved to Anniston, Alabama.

He took post graduate courses at the University of Georga. He financed much of his education by forming a pipe organ repair company. Hillyer III continues his father's quest for excellence in his own fields of endeavor. He is the author of "The Ancestors and Descendants of Hillyer Rudisill, Jr., B.S., M.D., F.A.C.P., F.A.C.R.", published in 1992. There are many references to his work in this genealogy, listed as Note [15]. Hillyer III has been researching the Rudisill family for many years in addition to his many other interests, such as collecting Packard Motor cars and playing the pipe organ. As an educator, he founded a number of independent schools under the auspices of the South Carolina Independent School Association, of which he was corporate secretary for over 20 years. In addition to all this talent, Hillyer is a perfectly delightful person and it has been one of the rewards of writing this genealogy to know and work with him.

DESCENDANTS OF PHILIP JAKOB RÜDISILE (1731 - 1764)

FOURTH GENERATION

1. Philip Jakob[4] Rūdisile. (Weyrich[3], 5) Born, circa 1731, in Michelfeld, Germany. Died, circa 1764, in Hoyles Creek, Mecklenburg, NC.[32]

Philip Jakob was credited as being the ancestor of a very large family in North Carolina by Miles Hoffman in his epic genealogy, "OUR KIN". To this day, many of our North Carolina cousins proclaim Philip Jakob as their true ancestor. However, the existing documentation shows that apparently Hoffman confused this Philip Jacob with another (John) Philip, son of Johann Jacob[3] and Elizabeth Hamsbacher Rüdisile. Philip Jakob left a will in which he named his wife, Mary (Ramsour), his daughter, Elizabeth, and referred to his brother, Michael. There were no other heirs; Mary promptly remarried after Philip Jakob's death in 1764, and half of Philip's real estate became the property of her husband, Nicholas Friday. The daughter, Elizabeth, received the other half of the real estate, and she later married Martin Friday, the younger brother of Nicholas Friday. Thus, the Rudisill land became Friday land. The land tranfer records confirm these transactions. Elizabeth Rudisill Friday died young and she had no heirs.

In "OUR KIN", Hoffman correctly records Philip, as being married to Mary and a daughter, Elizabeth; also his wife and daughter each received half of the real estate in his will. At this point, however, his story diverges from the documentation. His Philip (Jakob) dies in 1792, daughter Elizabeth marries Jacob Costner and she also now has many siblings, namely, Barbara, Catharine, Mary, Margaret, Susie, Michael, Philip (Jr.) and possibly Wiley. Hoffman has his Philip (Jr.) married to Elizabeth Lau.

There seems little doubt that Hoffman ignored the probate date of Philip Jakob's will, probated in 1764, and may not have read John Philip's will. He seems to have assumed that John Philip and Philip Jakob were one and the same person. John Philip's will was dated 4 August 1792 and mentions clearly his wife, Elizabeth (Ruppert), his daughter, Margaret, "and my children now living." There were a number of land tranactions between John Philip and the Costner family, and it is believed that these two families did intermarry as reported by Hoffman. Philip Rudisill, son of Jonas and Maria Elizabeth Moul, married Elizabeth Lau and moved to North Carolina in 1786, thus adding to the confusion of Miles Hoffman. We are indebted to Curtis Mosteller, who researched the data to set the record on a documented basis, and to Robert Carpenter who reported it so well in his "CARPENTERS A'PLENTY".

Philip Jakob is reported as participating in the Spanish Alarm of N.C. in 1748, and is listed the D.A.R. Patriot Index. He received a land grant for 520 acres on Hoyle's Creek, NC in 1754.

He married Anna Maria "Mary" Ramsauer in Mecklenburg Co., N.C. Born, 7 Jan 1738 in Trappe, Pa.
Children:

2 i. Elizabeth[5] Rudisill

FIFTH GENERATION

2. Elizabeth[5] Rudisill (Philip Jakob, 1). Born, circa 1756, in Hoyle's Creek, Mecklenburg, NC. Died, before 1783.[32]

She married Martin Friday. No issue.

THE FAMILY OF PHILIP JAKOB RÜDISILE

DESCENDANTS OF ANNA JOHANNA RUDISILL (1740 - ca. 1780)

FOURTH GENERATION

1. Anna Johanna "Hannah"[4] Rudisill (Weyrich[3], 5). Born, 28 Dec 1740, in York, York, Pa. Christened, 17 May 1741, in York, York, Pa. Died before 1785.[3,8,32] Buried with her father, Weyrich, and Henry Dellinger at the Smith-Dellinger cemetery on Rt. 1309, about 7 miles from Lincolnton, NC. Stones are not marked.

She married Henry Dellinger, circa 1760, in Lincoln Co., NC. Born, circa 1740, in Pa. Died, 15 Feb 1820, in Iron Station, NC. Burial in Smith-Dellinger graveyard, Iron Station, NC. Henry Dellinger's home is known as the Smith Brick House, located on the Tuckasege Road 6 miles from Lincolnton. He used it as a tavern and his spring house was used as a jail and storage of his liquors. He made frequent trips back to Pennsylvania taking droves of cattle up and returning with goods for his store and liquors for his tavern. Henry migrated to North Carolina prior to Revolutionary War. He was the son of Philip Dellinger, and was the brother of Martin Dellinger, Eve Dellinger and Mary Magdalene Dellinger. After "Hannah" died, he wooed a widow Smoller who promised to marry him if he kept her supplied with coffee, a rare and expensive item in those days. He did and she drank so much coffee that she died early according to local tradition. Children:

i. Michael[5] Dellinger. Born, 16 Jun 1761, in Lincoln Co, NC. Died, 23 Jan 1825, in Lincoln Co, NC.

DESCENDANTS OF

GEORG PHILIP RÜDISILE

(1725 - ca. 1758)

FOURTH GENERATION

1. Georg Philip[4] Rüdisile. (Philipp Heinrich[3], 6) Born, 18 Aug 1725, in Weiler-am-Stein, Germany. Baptized, 19 Aug 1725, in Weiler, Sinsheim, Baden, Germany.[7,31,99,100,101,102,103,293] This was the child that Philipp Heinrich brought over on the ship from Germany. Philip owned land in Derry Twp, Lancaster Co, Pa.
We have not been able to locate any information, such as a will, to indicate when Georg Philip died. Since Maria Barbara, his wife, was only 36 years old when their last child was born, it is likely that Georg Philip died at an early age, circa 1758.

He married Maria Barbara Miller, 28 Oct 1745, in New Holland, Lancaster, Pa. Born, 10 Aug 1722, in Lebanon, Pa. Died, 4 Jan 1813. Baptized in Pa. Burial in Bindnagles Church, Lebanon, Pa.
Children:

2 i. Johann Michael[5] Rudisill.

ii. Susanna Catharine Rudisill. Born, 29 Jul 1749, in Cleona, Lebanon, Pa. Died, 12 Oct 1757, in Lancaster, Pa. Baptized, 6 Aug 1749, in Hill Church, Lebanon Co, Pa. Burial: 13 Oct 1757, in Trinity Luth Cem, Lancaster, Pa.

iii. Maria Elizabeth Rudisill. Born, 29 Jul 1749, in Cleona, Lebanon Co, Pa. Baptized, 30 Nov 1751, in Hill Church, Cleona, Pa.

iv. Philip Adam Rudisill. Born, Jan 1754, in Cleona, Lebanon, Pa. Baptized, 25 Jan 1754, in Quitapohila Hill, Lebanon Co, Pa.

v. Eva Catharine Rudisill. Born, Jan 1756, in Cleona, Lebanon, Pa. Died, circa 1827. Baptized, 22 Feb 1756, in Hill Church, Lebanon Co, Pa. She married Johann Nicholas Neu, 26 Mar 1771, in Hill Lutheran Ch, N. Annville Twp, Lebanon Co, Pa.

vi. Anna Maria Rudisill. Born, 27 Nov 1758, in Lancaster, Lancaster, Pa. Baptized, 3 Dec 1758, in Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa.

FIFTH GENERATION

2. Johann Michael[5] Rudisill (Georg Philip, 1). Born, 8 Oct 1747, in Lancaster, Lancaster, Pa. Baptized, 15 Oct 1747, in Trinity Lutheran, Lancaster, Pa.[7,104,105,106,107,108,109] Michael and Maria Angelica were quite a mobile family, as they had their first child in their home town of Lancaster, the second child in Albany Twp in Berks Co., their third and fourth children in Middletown, Frederick Co., Md. About 1781 they packed up again and moved to German Twp in Westmoreland or Fayette Co. Pa. Their son Jacob was born 10 Dec 1782 and baptized there 10 Sep 1783 by Pastor Johann Wilhelm Weber. They sponsored Christian Grousshaar 25 Sep 1784 and later sponsored Susanna Schaffer daughter of George and Barbara 19 Nov 1785. Michael witnessed a will in Westmoreland Co. Feb 6 1784. Michael and Maria Angelica sponsored Margaretha Elizabetha Foss, baptized 7 Dec 1787. Michael appears on tax rolls for German Twp, Fayette Co. 1785-1788 and on 1790 U.S. Census for Fayette Co. Menallen Twp. Michael was granted a patent for 374 acres in Greene Twp, Greene Co. in 1792. He named the property "Mt. Joy". It is located south of Whitely Creek and north of Dunkard Twp. He appears to have sold the land to Nicholas Faust in 1793. From 1793, there are no more records of Michael and his family in Pa. It is believed that he moved westward by river boat with his family to Cincinati. Whether he moved north to Whitewater Twp, Franklin Co. Ind., where George, Michael Jr, Christopher and John are listed in the 1820 U.S. Indiana Census, is not known. There are numerous records in which Michael, Sr. and his sons appear to be in Miami Twp, Hamilton Co., Oh. but this area seems to be considered part of the Northwest Territory which could include parts of Indiana, such as Whitewater Twp.

He married Maria Angelica "Engel" Schaeferin, 30 Apr 1765, in Lancaster, Lancaster, Pa. Born, circa 1743, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster, Pa.
Children:

i. Maria Catharine[6] Rudisill. Born, 1766, in Lancaster, Pa. Baptized, 21 Jun 1766, in Trinity Lutheran, Lancaster, Pa.

ii. Eva Margaret Rudisill. Born, 22 Jan 1768, in Albany Twp, Berks, Pa. Baptized, 24 Apr 1768, in Rosenthal Church, Albany Twp, Berks, Pa. Her sponsors were Johann Georg Schaefer and Eva Margaret Meis, both single.

3 iii. Michael Rudicel.

iv. Barbara Rudisill. Born, 15 Apr 1772, in Middletown, Frederick Co, Md. Baptized, 26 Jun 1772, in Middletown Reformed Ch, Middletown, Frederick Co, Md.

v. Anna Maria Rudisill. Born, 16 Dec 1773, in Middletown, Frederick Co, Md. Baptized, 29 May 1774, in Middletown Reformed Ch, Middletown, Frederick Co, Md. She married John Van Blaricum on 26 Jun 1796. 8 Children: David S., Michael, Garret, James, Lucinda, Sarah, William C. and Elizabeth.

4 vi. Christopher Rudisill.

vii. Jacob Rudisill. Born, 10 Dec 1782, in Westmoreland, Pa. Baptized, 10 Sep 1783, in Westmoreland, Pa.

5 viii. George Rudicel.

SIXTH GENERATION

3. Michael[6] Rudicel (Johann Michael, 2). Born, 4 Feb 1770, in Manheim Twp, Lancaster, Pa. Died, 7 Aug 1859, in Whitewater Twp, Franklin, Ind.[110] The will of Michael Rudicel is recorded in Franklin Co, Ind. This will was probated 22 Aug 1859. In it, he directed his son, Michael, (Jr.) To take over the farm, located as the southeast quarter of Section 21 in Township 8 of Range 1 West in Franklin Co, and to farm it for four crops, after which he was to turn over the real estate to the executors in a state of good repair. The estate was then to be sold and the proceeds to be divided between the heirs. In event Michael Jr. refused to take over, then the farm was to be rented for one year, the proceeds to be used to put it good repair so it could be sold. The named heirs, in addition to Michael, were his sons, John Rudicel, George Rudicel, Philip Rudicel, and daughters Nancy Rudicel, Catherine George (wife of Jonathon George), the heirs of Salome Jackman (a deceased daughter), Susanna Jackman (wife of Atwell Jackman), Eleanor Hooten (wife of Henny Hooten), the heirs of Eliza Todd (a deceased daughter). He requested a tombstone similar in size and quality to those of his deceased wife, Susan. His brother, George Rudicel was named as executor.

He married Susan Zantreece (Van Treece), probably a sister of Catharine Zantreece, who married his brother, George. Born, circa 1775. Died, before 1850. Children:

6 i. John[7] Rudicel.

provided the following information: Lt Col Chandler C. Rudicel enrolled in the Citizens Military Training Camps in 1923. In 1925, he enlisted in the U.S. Army Organized Reserves. He had tours in Austalia, New Guinea, Korea, China, Japan, Okinawa and France. In WW II, Captain Rudicel set up and commanded the first Army Air Corps base in Australia in Jan 1942. Later, he was part of an Army Corps of Engineers advisory team to Chinese General Chiang Kai-Shek, which reported rampant corruption in the Chinese Nationalist forces to President Truman. After his retirement in 1960, Chandler devoted himself to the Kansas Democratic Party, being a Democratic Party presidential elector from 1968 to 1984 and County Democratic Party chairman for a total of 16 years. He founded the Reno County Retired Officers Asociation about 1970, and was active in that group. Chandler took an active interest in the Rudicel family and did much to document its history. He was instrumental in reorganizing the Reno County Historical Society and put it on a sound financial basis.

She stayed on at Graceland as their secretary, then Business Manager. Enrollment at Graceland spurted after World War II, and she became Dean of Women, during which time she attended Columbia University to hone her skills in personnel work. Later, she moved to Seattle, Washington, where she spent 3 years as secretary to the Port of Seattle Manager. Her Midwest roots brought her back to Kansas City, where she did personnel work for Butler Manufacturing Co., then moved on to be Office Manager for the Regional Girl Scout Council. Her next assignment was that of Executive Director of the National Secretarial Association. Thelma's last full-time job was Executive Assistant at the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints in Independence, after which she retired in 1980. Currently, she works part time in a travel agency, which allows her the opportunity to travel extensively. Her major hobby has been genealogy and her enthusiasm and energy in this has resulted in her writing and publishing "Edward C. Rudicil, the Man, his Ancestors and his Descendants." This publication has been a major contribution to our family's history and is quoted extensively in this book. She has also worked extensively with this author and has done a lot of Rudisill family research in addition to that of her own branch of the family. Working with Thelma has been inspiring and a continuing delight.

6. Henry W.[6] Rudisill (John Adam, 5). Born, 8 Aug 1801, in Lancaster, Lancaster, Pa. Died, 1858, in Ft Wayne, Allen, In. Baptized, 30 Aug 1801, in Trinity Lutheran, Lancaster, Pa. Burial in Lindenwood Cem, Ft Wayne, In.[117,118,170,171,172,173] Henry W. Rudisill (1801 - 1858) Memorial Service pamphlet by Michael C. Hawfield, president of Allen County/Fort Wayne Historical Society and president of the Association of Indiana Museums. This pamphlet was prepared for a memorial service to Henry W. Rudisill held on Oct 16, 1988 at the Lindenwood Cemetery in Ft Wayne to dedicate a very large new memorial to Henry as a tribute to his many accomplishments in Ft Wayne and in particular to his part in founding both St. Pauls Evangelical Lutheran Church and Trinity English Evangelical Lutheran church of Ft Wayne.

Henry came to Ft Wayne in 1829 with family arriving Christmas Eve in a blinding snowstorm, as an employee of John Barr and John McCorkle to survey and develop the town. Henry built the first grist mill in Ft Wayne along the St Joseph river, just south of the present State St. Bridge. Remnants of the dam can still be seen. He built the first steam powered saw mill and power carding mill in 1841. In 1843, he built a linseed oil mill. He was Postmaster of Ft Wayne 1831-41. He was elected County Commissioner in 1848 and again in 1849. He was the first Treasurer of Ft Wayne. In 1833, he helped to form "The Anthony Waynes", the first volunteer fire brigade. In 1834, he was elected Ensign in the "Ft Wayne Light Infantry", a unit formed to put down violence threatened by Irish workers employed to build the Wabash and Erie Canal nearby. He continued to serve in the local militia as a First Lt. and then Captain in the "Fort Wayne Guards". The family had a grand home on the north side of town. He was instrumental in founding St Paul's Lutheran Church, the first Protestant church in Ft Wayne, and later the Trinity English Lutheran Church. As further memorials to Henry, a major boulevard in town, a shopping plaza, a school and a large business building have been named in his honor.

He married Elizabeth Johns, circa 1823, in York, Pa. Born, circa 1808, in Oh. Died, 1891, in Ft Wayne, Allen Co, In. Burial in Lindenwood Cem, Ft Wayne, In. 1850 U.S. Census lists Elizabeth Johns Rudisill as born in Ohio, daughter of Henry Johns, who was born in Tenn, in 1774. She had real estate valued at $20,000 in 1850.

	x.	Catharine Rudaciller. Born, circa 1786, in Culpeper Co, Va.

2. Jacob[5] Rudaciller (John Jacob, 1). Born, circa 1764, in Culpeper Co, Va.[177,183,193,195] John Jacob Rudacilla's will provides for the heirs of Jacob Rudaciller, deceased, prior to the writing of the will in 1818. Jacob had apparently married Lydia, as she was named a defendant in a suit brought by Jacob's brother, John. The objective of the lawsuit was to get property willed to Lydia brought back to the estate. This action was successful, and another Jacob, possibly a son of Lydia, purchased this property from the estate of John Jacob at fair market value. The latter Jacob then resold the property to William, son of John Jacob, 8 months later at no profit.

At the time of the publication of this genealogy, no documentation has been found which identify the children of Jacob and Lydia Rudacilla. It appears that Jacob moved to Warren County, Va. and had John, William and Jacob, as these three men all had families in this county and all were born in Virginia, which ties them to children of the Virginia pioneers, John Jacob and Barbara Wegerlin.

Reliable and consistent information has not been found to establish the parents of another Jacob Rudaciller (or Rudisell, per the 1830 Botetourt Co U.S. Census) who married a Nancy Simpson in Botetourt Co, Va. in 1801. If this marriage date is correct, the story relating to a Jacob Rudacille in a local Warren County newspaper ("The Register")in 1939 discussing the Rudacille families of Warren County is off the mark. It related that a Jacob Rudaciller appeared in County Court in Woodstock in 1789 as a witness. In 1803 Jacob Rudaciller bought 100 acres of land on Gimlet Mountain and started raising a family. So far, the story substantiates our belief that Jacob, son of John Jacob, moved to Warren Co from Culpeper Co. Next, it stated that, "In 1839, a Jacob Rudaciller moved to Botetourt Co, became a "Gentleman Justice", and sat on the County Court. How he ever got that far from Gimlet Mountain, the Lord only knows." For the purpose of including the Botetourt County clan in this genealogy, a John Jacob Rudisell born circa 1780 is included in the family of Jacob and Lydia, not withstanding the facts that they had another son, Jacob, who had an established family in Warren County, that the Botetourt County Jacob spelled his name differently and the 1939 newspaper account date of Jacob Rudacille's departure from Warren County to Botetourt County in 1839 does not support the fact of his known earlier arrival in Botetourt County per the 1830 U.S. Census and the Botetourt County List of Marriages. Obviously, more work needs to be done to identify the parents of this Botetourt County Jacob, as well as the other children of Jacob Rudaciller, Jr.

He married Lydia _____. This marriage has not been validated.

SIXTH GENERATION

6. John Jacob[3] Rudisell (Jacob, 2). Born, circa 1780. Died in Boutetourt, Va.[175,188,193,310] Reliable and consistent information has not been found to establish the parents of Jacob Rudisill, who may have married Eleanor Hawkins in Culpeper Co Co and did marry Nancy Simpson in Botetourt Co Co, Va. in 1801. If this marriage date is correct, the story relating to a Jacob Rudacille in a local Warren Co County newspaper ("The Register")in 1939 discussing the Rudacille families of Warren Co County is clearly off the mark. It related that a Jacob Rudaciller appeared in County Court in Woodstock in 1789 as a witness. In 1803 Jacob Rudaciller bought 100 acres of land on Gimlet Mountain and started raising a family. Next, it stated that, "In 1839, a Jacob Rudaciller moved to Botetourt Co Co, became a "Gentleman Justice", and sat on the County Court. How he ever got that far from Gimlet Mountain, the Lord only knows." Obviously, there are real inconsistencies in the above data. In order to include James and his Culpeper Co family and the Botetourt Co County family in this genealogy, this Jacob has been accorded two wives and included in the family of Jacob and Lydia, even though there are many assumptions not backed up with many facts.

Rudacille longed to join his four older brothers in the CSA. But he was told his duty was to run the farm and protect his mother and younger children. Throughout the war, he begged for permission to join, but unlike the military hero, Cincinnatus, he could not leave the plough. When the alarm, "the Yankees are coming!" would sound, he would unhitch the horses and dash off to the wooded hills with them as these horses meant food for the family and they must not be captured at any cost. Meanwhile his mother would wait in the house and pray that the soldiers would not discover their food stored beneath a trap door in the parlor floor covered by a carpet. He was penniless after the war, but he and his frugal wife worked and saved to buy Spangler Hall, a brick mansion near Limeton. There, they raised their large family and left a substantial estate."

111. John Philip[9] Rudacille (Lewis Cosmus Rudacille, 62). Born, 25 Feb 1916, in Browntown, Warren Co, Va.[145,193] John Philip has written extensively about the history of his family and his own experiences during his lifetime. He has provided an extraordinary picture of a loving, caring, sincere, hardworking family that is an inspiration to all who read it. His father was a blacksmith in Browntown, Va and in 1925 the family moved to York, Pa. in search of a better life. John began his working career selling home made root beer from his wagon at age 9, and has contributed to his family's welfare ever since. During the great depression, John had to stop his education in the third year of high school to work full time, taking his injured father's place on a WPA project. After working for two years in a stone quarry, he took a number of assignments at A. B. Farquhar Co., a manufacturer of machinery. Later on during the war he took a job as an ordnance inspector and completed his career in this position in 1970. He continually educated himself by reading thousands of books covering technology, religion, history, outer space, philosophy, law, agriculture, etc. He is a devout Christian and a man serenely at peace with himself.

He is a graduate of the Gettysburg College (B.A. 1957), Lutheran Seminary at Gettysburg (B.D. 1960) and the Lutheran Seminary at Philadelphia (S.T.M. 1966). He was the Assistant Pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Lancaster, Pa.(1960-1964), Archivist for the Lutheran Seminary (1966-1971) and Pastor of St. Pauls Church in Biglerville, Pa. (1971-1990). At age 19, he researched and wrote the "Tanger-Metzger Genealogy". Since then he has conducted detailed research of the early Americans of German and Swiss descent and written extensively of their history, culture and genealogy. He is the primary advisor for the development of the Rudisill genealogy and contributed much of the material, including the discovery and documentation of our origins in Frümsen, Sax, Au and Berneck in Switzerland; Württemburg and Michelfeld in Germany.

Currently, he continues his research activities, lectures on the Pennsylvania German history, culture and folk art, conducts historical tours in Europe, occasional preaching, shares a Pennsylvania farmhouse with Pastor Larry Neff and an undetermined number of cats. His hobby is collecting wood carvings from the local area and the Erzgebirge region of Germany.

DESCENDANTS OF TOBIAS RUDISILL (1736 - 1816)

FOURTH GENERATION

1. Tobias[4] Rudisill (Johan Jacob[3], 7). Born, 28 Apr 1736, in York, Pa., the second son of Johan Jacob and Elizabeth Hamsbacher Rüdisile, and twin brother of Jonas Rudisill. Died, 26 Mar 1816, in Taneytown, Carroll Co, Md. Baptized in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa. Burial in Taneytown Lutheran Cem, Taneytown. Birth recorded at Trinity Lutheran Church parish records, Lancaster, Pa. Death date established by gravestone.[7.205] Note that Carroll County was formed from a portion of Frederick Co, Md in the early 1800s.

He married Louisa Engelmann, 12 Jun 1759, in Christ Lutheran, Church, York, Pa. Born, 7 Apr 1743, in York, York, Pa. Died, Dec 1821, in Taneytown. Burial in Taneytown Lutheran Cem, Taneytown. She was the daughter of Ludwig Engelmann of York, Pa. Her gravestone in Taneytown Lutheran Church cem. reads, "T. Louis(a) Rudisill." She was apparently called "Rebecca" as a number of family notes refer to "Tobias and Rebecca", yet most of the church records list her as "Louisa".
Children:

2 i. John Jacob[5] Rudisill.

3 ii. Elizabeth Rudisill.

iii. Maria Rudisill. Born, 15 Feb 1765, in Taneytown. Died, 23 Apr 1784, in Taneytown. Burial: Apr 1784, in Taneytown Lutheran Cemetery.

4 iv. Jonas Rudisill.

v. George Rudisill. Born, 15 Mar 1770, in Taneytown. Died, 13 Mar 1795, in Taneytown. Burial in Trinity Lutheran cem, Taneytown, Md. There appears to have been two Georges in Taneytown leading to some confusion. The will of Tobias, drawn in 1810, lists a George as his son, but there is a gravestone marker in the Taneytown Lutheran Church cemetery which shows a G. Rudisel born 15 March 1770, and death on 13 Mar 1795. A second George was born 12 Sep 1790, so it has been assumed that both were born to Tobias and Louisa.

vi. John Rudisill. Born, 25 Aug 1772, in Taneytown. Died, 25 Mar 1840, in Taneytown. Burial in Trinity Lutheran cem, Taneytown, Md.

5 vii. Ludwick Rudisill.

viii. Margaretha Rudisill. Born, circa 1780, in Taneytownix.

Eva Rudisill. Born, circa 1782, in Taneytown.

x. Louisa Rudisill. Born, 1783, in Taneytown.. Baptized, 2 Oct 1783, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa.

xi. Louis Rudisill. Born, 27 Mar 1783, in Taneytown. Died, 11 Aug 1805, in Taneytown. Burial in Trinity Lutheran cem, Taneytown, Md.

xii. Philip Rudisill. Born, 20 Mar 1785, in Taneytown. Died, 21 Nov 1810, in Taneytown. Burial in Taneytown Lutheran cem. Philip confirmed 24 May 1801.

xiii. Nancy Rudisill. Born, 7 Sep 1787, in Taneytown. Died, 9 Sep 1861, in Taneytown. Burial in Taneytown Lutheran cem.

xiv. Susanna Rudisill. Born, 28 Nov 1789, in Taneytown.

xv. George Rudisill. Born, 12 Sep 1790, in Taneytown. Died, 22 Sep 1824, in Taneytown. Burial in Trinity Lutheran cem, Taneytown.

FIFTH GENERATION

2. John Jacob[5] Rudisill (Tobias, 1). Born, 23 Oct 1760, in York, Pa. Died, circa 1836, in Springfield Twp, Columbiana Co, Oh.(now Mahoning Co). Baptized, 10 May 1761, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa. Burial in Old Dutch Church Cem, Springfield Twp, Mahoning Co, Oh.[8,205,206,207,208,209,293] John Jacob accompanied his brother, Jonas, to Huntingdon Twp, Huntingdon Co, Pa. in the late 1700's. He appears in the 1800 U.S. census there. Johan Jacob was confirmed at Taneytown Lutheran Church with brother, Ludewick, and sister, Susanna, on 11 Aug 1793. There is a communion record in 1794.

He married Katherine Musser, 6 Feb 1789, in Frederick, Md. Frederick Co, Md marriage records, 1778-1797, have recorded her as Catherine Moser.Born, circa 1767, in York, York, Pa. Died, 9 Aug 1807, in Springfield, Columbiana Cp, Oh. Burial in Old Dutch Church Cem, Petersburg, Oh.

There has been much confusion in the author's data regarding Katharine Musser. The Musser family has been reported to be Swiss-German and emigrated from the Austrian Tyrol country in 1709-10. Hans Musser settled on 300 acres in a farm area later incorporated into the Lancaster, Pa. city limits, which was called Hickorytown. His sons were Joseph and Christian. Christian married Eva Hartman. Christian and Eva had Peter Musser (b. April, 1740, d. 26 Nov 1802).

Peter, Sr. married Margaret Wurtzman (b. 1 Feb 1743, d. 7 mar 1821). Peter Sr. was a Revolutionary War soldier, and is buried in Old Church cem, Petersburg, Ohio. Peter and Margaret had Katharine, Samuel (stayed in Pa.), John, Peter, Jr. and Jacob, these last two named brothers owning the village site they named "Musser Mills". Jacob became the first postmaster and storekeeper. Peter, Jr. persuaded his parents and other members of the family to take up a large tract of land in Columbiana Co, Oh (now Mahoning Co), where they built a built a sawmill and gristmill. Peter Musser, Jr. participated in the War of 1812 and took a decisive part in the capture of Hull in Sandusky, Ohio. He rose to the rank of Major General soon after.

Katharine married Jacob Rudisill in Frederick Co Md and her name appears on the marriage lists as "Catharine Moser". A number of local histories record that the Mussers were from York, not Lancaster. How Katherine Musser met and married Jacob Rudisill in Maryland is not known. After their marriage, they moved with Jacob's brother, Jonas, to Huntingdon Co, Pa. about 1790 and on to Columbiana Co, Oh before 1810. Jacob and Katharine's daughter, Elizabeth, who married Daniel Mowen, had her mother listed as Elizabeth Musser, but this must have been in error.

Children:

6 i. Mary "Polly"[6] Rudisill.

3. Elizabeth[5] Rudisill (Tobias, 1). Born, 23 Jun 1763, in Taneytown, Md. Died, Aug 1807, in Taneytown, Md. Burial in Trinity Lutheran Cemetery, Taneytown, Md.[205,210,211] Elizabeth assumed to have been born in Taneytown in that there are no records of birth or baptism at Trinity Lutheran in York, where the recording of such events was very good. There are no records at Taneytown until 1788. Birthdate was established by her tombstone in Trinity Lutheran cem at Taneytown.

She married, first, William Behr, 1 Jun 1782, in Taneytown.

She married, second, Jacob Cover, 31 May 1785, in Taneytown.
Child:

4. Jonas[5] Rudisill (Tobias, 1). Born, 1 May 1766, in Taneytown, Md. Died, 13 Nov 1860, in Winchester, Adams Co, Oh. Burial in Winchester.[212,213,214,215,216] Jonas migrated from Taneytown, Md. to Huntingdon Co, Pa. about 1796, moved to Chilicothe, Ross Co, Oh. about 1806, moved to West Union, Ross Co about 1814, moved to Winchester, Adams Co, about 1830. He was a Methodist and a farmer by occupation.

He married Elizabeth Harr, circa 1798, in Huntingdon Co, Pa. Born, 1778, in England. Died, 4 May 1839, in Winchester, Oh. Burial in Winchester. Not much is known about Elizabeth Harr or how she came to Huntingdon, Pa. There were Harr families in the Baltimore area at this time, so she probably emigrated through the port of Baltimore from England.

8. Daniel[6] Rudisill (John Jacob, 2). Born, 1 Jun 1793, in Taneytown, Carroll, Md. Baptized, 10 Jun 1793, in Trinity Lutheran, Taneytown, Md.[214,217,220,293] William Sellman's History of Winchester Co. Ohio identified Daniel as being the son of Tobias and Rebecca, rather than Louisa. It must be that Louisa was known as Rebecca. Taneytown Trintity Lutheran Church has record of Daniel's birth and baptism.

He married Elizabeth Painter, 7 Sep 1817, in Springfield Twp, Columbiana, Oh. Children:

i. Catharina[7] Rudesill. Born, 1 Apr 1818, in Petersburg, Mahoning Co, Oh. Died, 16 Feb 1837, in Petersburg. Buried in old cemetery at Petersburg, Oh.

11. Daniel Harr[6] Rudisill (Jonas, 4). Born, 26 Jul 1799, in Huntingdon, Huntingdon, Pa. Died, 22 Feb 1882, in Arcadia, Morgan, Il. Burial in Arcadia Cem., Arcadia, Morgan, Il.[215,216,223] This man must share the blame for the research and writing of this genealogy, as he is the great-grandfather of the author, who struggled for ten years to find the parents of Daniel Harr Rudisill. Daniel left no papers or clues except census data showing that he was born in Pa., which would leave me, the inexperienced researcher, to conclude that the parents came from the York or Lancaster Co area. Interviews with Morgan Co, Il descendants brought out reminiscences that he had walked to Illinois from Roscoe, Ohio and been married five times, but they could point to the graves of only four of them.

Roscoe, Ohio looked like a good lead, as it was a pioneer town, but a diligent search of the records there showed no sign of Daniel or his family, and again the trail ended. More years went by in which I collected every scrap of information about Rudisills, no matter what the content, and continued to spread the word of my quest for information on Daniel.

Finally, a letter arrived from Dorothy G. Barger, the daughter of Zetta Rudisill DeArmand with the key to Daniel's parents. While it is true that he was born in Pennsylvania, it was in a little community of Huntingdon, one of a number of stops made by his father, Jonas. Jonas may have met Elizabeth Harr here or in Maryland, but Huntingdon is where they started their family. About 1806, this family packed up again and headed for Ohio and settled in or near Chillicothe. Chillicothe is in Ross Co. and hence the confusion with the town of Roscoe!

Daniel grew up in Chillicothe, married Sarah Orr and had a son, Jonas. Meanwhile the senior Jonas, left Chillicothe with the most of the family for greener pastures in Adams County, while Daniel and Sarah remained in Chillicothe with his brother, Eleazar . Shortly thereafter, the first of a series of tragedies befell Daniel when his beloved Sarah died, probably in childbirth.

In 1830, Daniel struck out on his own, leaving infant Jonas in Chillicothe, probably with his Orr in-laws. Daniel did indeed walk all the way to Morgan Co, Il, where he found the land he wanted. He obtained land in Arcadia and singlehandedly built his farm where he would remain for the rest of his life. A letter from his brother, Eleazar, to him describes a terrible outbreak of cholera in Chillicothe in 1833 which took the lives of over 100 people in the town.

His first son, Jonas, would remain in Chillicothe with the Orr family until at least 1849, when he wrote to Daniel from there. By 1851, Jonas had come to Illinois to be with his father, and died shortly thereafter in 1851.

He married, first, Sarah Orr, 15 Mar 1827, in Chilicothe, Ross Co, Ohio. Born, 1807. Died, 1829, in Chilicothe, Oh. Burial in Greenlawn Cem., Chilicothe, Oh. Child:

Burial in Arcadia Cem., Morgan, Il. Cynthia Ann Johnson was the third wife of Daniel H. Rudisill. Since all but the last of Daniel's wives died after their first child, it is possible that Daniel had Rh negative blood type. The family lore in Illinois is that Cynthia's branch of the Johnson family is closely related to the Lyndon Baines Johnson family of Texas, but this has not been researched to prove or disprove the story.

116. Richard Erle[9] Rudisill (Charles Albert, 70). Born, 12 Feb 1894, in Emporia, Lyon Co, Ks. Died, 2 Mar 1983, in La Jolla, San Diego Co, Ca. Burial: 5 Mar 1983, in Pt Loma National Cemetery, San Diego, Ca. Col. Rudisill was a career army officer most of his life. After attending the University of Colorado, he joined the U.S. Army about 1914 and served in Mexico against Pancho Villa. He graduated OCS Camp Pike, Ar. and trained a railroad battalion for port duty in WW I. Released from the service about 1920, he moved to California about 1922. Held various jobs in the automotive industry until 1930, when became a U.S. Immigration officer. In 1939, he returned to the Army and became a Counter Intelligence officer, serving in Ft Rosecrans, Ca, Los Angeles, Ft Douglas, Ut, and the Phillipines. In 1945 he was ordered to Tokyo, where he set up and commanded the organization for General MacArthur to collect the evidence needed for the War Crimes Commission to prosecute Class B and Class C war criminals. His organization provided evidence used in prosecuting 2500 defendants with charges including murder, torture, beheading, sadism and cannabalism. The results were 31 death sentences, 108 life sentences, 200 twenty - thirty year sentence and hundreds of sentences of one to sixteen years. This job completed, he was dispatched to Berlin during the famous airlift in 1949 where he was the Area Commander of the Counter Intelligence Corps. Because of the sensitivity of his operations at this post, very little is known of his activities, except that he received numerous high level commendations for his work. He remained at this assignment until 1954, when he returned to Ft. Meade for separation. He retired to La Jolla, Ca. He made his home there for the rest of his life, traveling extensively to all parts of the world.

He married Edwina Marie Rodgers, 18 Jun 1919, in Little Rock, Arkansas. Born, 18 Sep 1898, in Paragould, Ar., the younger daughter of Edward Lee Rodgers and Elizabeth Latourette. JONAS RUDISILL (1736-1799)

FOURTH GENERATION

1. Jonas[4] Rudisill (Johann Jacob[3], 7). Born, 28 Apr 1736, in York, York Co, Pa. to Johann and Elizabeth Hamsbacher Rudisile. Died, circa 1799, in York. Baptized, 19 May 1736, in Christ Lutheran Church, York, Pa.[3,8,31] Listed in DAR Patriot Index. Attended Christ Lutheran Church of York during lifetime. Was a private in Revolutionary War. Served in Capt. Copenhafer's Co. First Battalion, York County Associators, organized in 1775 by Col. James Smith. In 1776, the First Battalion was re-formed as a part of the First Regiment of Flying Camp commanded by Col. Michael Swope. Swope's regiment took part in the Battle of Ft. Washington and other engagements around New York City. When Washington retreated to New Jersey, Col. Swope and the Flying Camp took part in the Battles of Princeton and Trenton. Jonas also served with Capt Lindsay's company. Jonas served in the Indian Wars.

He married Maria Elizabeth Moul, 11 Jun 1754, in Christ Lutheran, York Co, Pa. Born, circa 1738, in York, York Co, Pa. Died, 1803, in York. She was the daughter of Bartholomew and Maria Elizabeth Moul of York Co, Pa.

FIFTH GENERATION

2. Philip[5] Rudisill (Jonas, 1). Born, 4 Apr 1756, in York, York Co, Pa. Died, 6 May 1812, in Clarks Creek, Lincoln Co, NC. Burial in Ramsour Graveyard.[3,8,32,37] Philip was a blacksmith. "Our Kin" identified his parent as Philip Jakob Rudisill, which has caused a lot of misunderstanding, particularly in the South, where Miles Hoffman's book has been considered the primary authority for the Lincoln County, North Carolina pioneer families, and the first to write extensively about the Rudisill clan. Hoffman relied primarily on oral history from family members during the early 1900's, and it is easy to be confused with the repetitive given names and the blur of a century's memories. In this case, family researchers trying to verify Hoffman's work discovered some discontinuities in the data and a close study of land records has been done to verify that this Philip was the son of Jonas and Elizabeth Moul Rudisill of York Co, Pa. (See pages 195, 196 and "Carpenters A'Plenty", page 1044, for a detailed discussion.)

He married Elizabeth Lau, circa 1780, in York, York Co, Pa. Born, 7 Sep 1765, in York, York Co, Pa. Died, 6 Oct 1824, in Clarks Creek, Lincoln Co, NC. Burial in Ramsour Cemetery, Lincoln Co, NC. Gravestone at Ramsour graveyard on the South Fork River about 4 miles from Lincolnton, NC.

iii. Catharine Rudisill. Born, circa 1833, in NC.
iv. Cap Rudisill. Born, circa 1835, in NC. Died in Indianapolis, In. Cap was Court Clerk in Indianapolis, In. It is possible that this is the son Melancthon, as "Our Kin" did not provide enough information to identify him more positively. Hoffman may have also confused him with a cousin, Capt. Milford B. Rudisill, who was Court Clerk of Putnam Co, In. The 1850 US Census does not identify a "Cap" in this family.
v. Mary A. Rudisill. Born, circa 1837, in In.
vi. Caroline A. Rudisill. Born, circa 1839, in NC.

29. Mary Anna[7] Rudisill (Michael, 7). Born, circa 1814, in Catawba Co, NC. Buried in St Pauls Church Cem, Catawba Co, NC.[3,259,260]

iv. Albert Rudisill. Born, 1859, in Clarke Twp, Montgomery, In.

31. Levi Melancthon[7] Rudisill (Michael, 7). Born, circa 1822, in Catawba Co, NC. Died in Newton, Catawba Co, NC.[3,293] A grandson, Leslie Rudisill Forney, Sr. described his grandfather as being "tall, bearded and very grave." He went on to remember that he was also kindly and humorous, engaged as a carpenter, bridgebuilder, merchant and farmer. Opposed to slavery, he freed the slaves brought to his household as part of his wealthy wife's dowry. Several of the former slaves remained with the family as servants. His descendants believe that Levi was a Lt. in the NC militia during the Civil War, but apparently did not engage in the hostilities. "Our Kin" reported that he moved to El Paso, Texas, but the family states that he never moved from the Newton, NC area and is probably buried in the family plot at the Eastview Cemetery at Newton. Will data provides supporting evidence that Levi remained in NC.

He married Elizabeth "Eliza" Fullenwider, circa 1835, in NC. Born, circa 1825, in Catawba Co, NC. She was eldest daughter of John Fullenwider, Jr. and Lavinia Forney, a descendant of Peter Forney, a Revolutionary Soldier who fought with distinction with his brothers.

Died, 24 Apr 1885, in Anniston, Al.[3,15,16] John Weiry Rudisill was Company Commander in CSA during Civil War, First Regiment. Was wounded at Second Battle of Cold Harbor. He was mustered in on May 1, 1862 at Sandersville, Ga. His company was redesignated (2nd) Co "C" and assigned to the 12th Battalion, Ggeorgia Light Artillery. In Jan 1863, the company was redesignated as (3rd) company "B", 12th battalion Georgia Volunteers. This unit was assigned as part of the coastal defense network along the SC coast, taking part in action at Battery Wagner, Morris Island and Ft Sumter. He took medical leave on 9/1863, his illness certified by his brother and battallion surgeon, Dr. Benjamin f. Rudisill as having chronic hepatitis. Captain Rudisill's superior, a Maj. Stephen Elliott, Commander, Artillery, Ft Sumter, didn't buy the diagnosis, as he wrote a letter to the Confederate Secretary of War, doubting the illness and recommended the captain's arrest and return. Although there was no sign that this request was honored, Captain Rudisill was back on active duty in Jan 1864. He was captured in the Battle of Fishers Hill, Va., 22 Sep 1864, and was a POW at Ft Delaware, De, until 6/10/1865 when he signed an oath of allegiance to the USA. He was a brilliant lawyer and member of the Ga. Legislature before the Civil War. Lived in Forsythe, Ga., and taught school until 1883, when he moved to Anniston, Alabama.

214 iv. Evan Leon Rudisell.

115. Thomas[8] Rudisill (Ephraim, 49). Born, circa 1843, in Catawba Co, NC.[3] This is the Thomas that Hoffman discussed on page 285 of "Our Kin" as being the son of a brother of Absalom Rudisill, and who had a son, Roswell, by an unnamed wife. At the moment, there is no evidnce of the existence of this person, and this entry may not be valid. Hoffman apparently had some confusion between the numerous John Rudisills and thought the Catawba Co John Rudisill married to Catharine Reinhardt was the son of Michael, when in fact this John was the son of Johannes. Terry Young did research to determine the correct line of descent. I have assumed that Thomas was the son of Ephraim, as there were only 3 sons in the family of John and Catharine, and the other son was much younger than Absalom.

The name of his spouse is not known.
Children:

i. Roswell[9] Rudisill. Born, circa 1850, in Lincoln Co, NC. He married Winnie Hoffman.

116. John Pinkney "Possum"[8] Rudisill (Ephraim, 49). Born, Jun 1845, in Catawba Co, NC.[32,55,56] Known as "Possum John" because he loved to hunt and tanned the skins.

He also loved to entertain by dancing when someone would play the banjo.

He married Tempie Lynn, 2 Jun 1876, in Bandy Twp, Catawba Co, NC. Born, Oct 1854, in Bandy Twp, Catawba Co, NC.
Children:

215 i. Pinkney[9] Rudisill.

Burial in Trinity Cem, NC.[34,52,54,267,292] Adolphus Alexander apparently born to Margaret Rudisill, daughter of John and Catharine Reinhardt. He first appears in the 1850 U.S. Census NC Catawba Co Newton Twp as "Daphne", age 1, in the home of John and Catharine, with Margaret among the household members. The census taker probably tried to write "Dolph", as he was known. "Dolph" next appears in the 1880 U.S. Census, Bandys Twp, Catawba Co, NC married to Sarah, with son James, age 2. Then in the 1900 U.S. Census as Adolphus, married to Kate ("Cate") with children Bob, Mag, Joe, Ed and Daniel. Terry Young has reconstructed the two families of Adolphus, which are listed here.

He married, first, Sarah Ann "Sally" Rhoney, 8 Apr 1877, in Catawba Co, NC. Born, 29 Sep 1846, in Catawba Co, NC. Died, 16 Dec 1887, in Bandy Twp, Catawba Co, NC. Burial in Trinity Cem, NC. Children:

219 i. James Guy[9] Rudisill.
ii. Lola Emaline Rudisill. Born, 20 Aug 1881, in Catawba Co, NC. Died, 17 Dec 1945, in NC. She married James L. "Jim" Brittain. Lola had a twin sister who apparently died at birth, or shortly thereafter, as she was not baptized or named.
iii. Robert Rudisill. Born, 4 Jun 1884, in Bandy Twp, Catawba Co, NC. Robert died in 1929 in a automobile accident.

He married, second, Katharine C. Rhoney, circa 1889, in Catawba Co, NC. Born, 15 Jan 1859, in Catawba Co, NC. Died, 1930. Burial in Ebenezer Cem, NC. Katharine was not a sister of Sally Rhoney, first wife of Adolphus.
Children:

Died, 22 Mar 1951, in NC.[263] Like the Rudisills, the Sipes were Protestant German farmers and craftsmen who immigrated from the Rhine River region in Germany; forced out by years of war and hardship. This Sipe's ancestor, Paul, with his brother Philip, came on the ship Neptune, from Rotterdam to Philadelphia on 4 Oct 1752. He settled in Landcaster Co. Pa. for 19 years, then moved near Frederick, Maryland, and then to Lincoln Co. NC where he purchased 554 acres on Lyles Creek (N. of Conover) in 1787. Two Hoke families lived nearby. A son, Daniel, served with Washington (1777-78), and may have been at Valley Forge. The Sipe/Rudisill family migration patterns were similar. Only one of Daniel's siblings remained with him in NC, the others moved to Indiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Georgia and Oklahoma during the 1800's, searching for good affordable farm land and braving the Indians. Lawson was the great-grandson of Daniel.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN HENRY RUDISILL (1759 - 1847)

FOURTH GENERATION

1. John Henry[4] Rudisill (Johan Jacob[3], 7). Born, 18 Dec 1759, in Manchester Twp, York, Pa. Died, 5 Jan 1847, in Ohio. Baptized, 3 Feb 1760, in Christ Lutheran, York, Pa. Burial in Greenlawn Cem, Perry Twp, Oh.[157,197] Henry "Rudicilly", according to his own testimony in court to establish his right to a Revolutionary War veterans pension, enlisted as a soldier about 4 July 1776, Joining a York County Militia unit commanded by Capt. Josh Harbaugh and Lt. Andrew Smith. His unit marched from Little York to Phila. They sailed up the Delaware to Trenton, marched to Princeton, to New Brunswick, to Elizabethtown, to Newark, to Bordentown when his 3 month enlistment expired. He immediately re-enlisted in a company under captain Michael Smiler in Col. Michael Swope's regiment. They crossed the North River and marched to Ft. Washington where they were captured by the British on 16 Nov 1776. The captives were taken to New York City where they were housed in an old church. He escaped on the 11th or 12th of December, and by swimming the North river (probably the Harlem River). He returned to his home in Manchester Twp, York Co. About 2 Jun 1777, he was drafted into a company commanded by Capt Jacob Miller, and marched to Philadelphia, to Chadds Ford, Pa. where they joined Washington's army and two days later fought in the Battle of Brandywine. Again his enlistment expired, and in the fall of 1778, he was drafted for two months under Capt Simon Copenhafer as First Sergeant, guarding British prisoners. This was his last service in the American Revolution, according to this testimony. He also stated that he resided in York Co until 1794, when he moved to the area of Saxon, Pa. for 4 years, then Coal Hill, Pa. for one year, to Mercer Co for 7 years, then to Trumbull Co, Oh. for 4 years and lastly to Beaver Creek, Clark Co, Oh. Other records state that he was a private in Capt. Copenhafer's company in the York County Militia in 1781, and was in Capt Albreigh's Rifle Company, York Co in 1785. Applied for pension from Ohio, and was granted pension to commence 4 Mar 1833. He is listed in the official roster of soldiers of the American Revolution Buried in the State of Ohio. In a Clarke Co, Ohio land sale to a William Clark in 1828, Henry's wife is named Elizabeth. Date of death is from Henry's tombstone in Greenlawn Cemetery, Logan Co, Ohio.

Studied medicine at Miami College, Cincinnati and became a skillful physician and surgeon.

3. Michael[5] Rudisill (John Henry, 1). Born, 7 May 1796, in Little York, York Co, Pa. Died, 11 Jan 1883, in Wayne Twp, Champaign Co, Oh.[81,111,125,180,197,291.293] Listed as a shomaker, migrated to Ohio in 1812, and served two yearsin the US Army in the War of 1812. Michael's obituary, which appeared in the Jan 18th, 1883, Urbana, OH Citizens Gazette, was written by William Patrick, a boyhood chum who knew him for almost 80 years. He relates how the two families met and farmed in the newly surveyed township of Brookfield, Trumbull Co, Oh and experiencing all the hardships of pioneer life, relying only on the forest for their total sustenance. He tells how Michael's father cleared and planted his new land with no other help than a milch cow, which he harnessed with old ropes. Their diet for a considerable time consisted only of milk from the cow, esculent roots and game from the forest.

William Patrick further relates that in 1811, news of great new lands were available further west, which caused a mania to move to the new paradise. The Rudisills, the Patricks and several other neighbors teamed up to build a river boat on the Shenango River, above Sharon, an iron mill town on the Ohio-Pennsylvania border. They floated it over several dams to the mouth of the Big Yankee Creek. and awaited the spring freshets. About 20 people set sail on this vessel, which was wafted and drifted down the river without incident to Cincinnati, Oh. Here they disembarked and took off in different directions to seek the land of their dreams.

DESCENDANTS OF JACOB[6] RUDISEL (1782 - 1847)

Author's note: At the time this genealogy was being prepared for publication, there were no known records to identify the parents of Jacob Rudisel. However, an analysis of the data has convinced me that this Jacob is the seventh child of Johan Michael and Maria Angelica Rudisill in the family of Georg Philip Rüdisile (see pages 203-204).
Family history records from his descendants indicate that this Jacob was born in Pennsylvania and was a veteran of the War of 1812. He died in Lawrenceville, Dearborn County, Indiana, which was less than 20 miles from the rest of Johan Michael's family in adjacent Franklin County. Anyone interested in proving this relationship should look for Johan Michael's will (or that of Maria Angelica) in one of these two counties.

This publication will therefore show Jacob[6], below, as being the son of Johan Michael and Maria Angelica Rudisill.

NUMERICAL NOTE REFERENCES

The superscript numbers which follow the vital statistics of the head of each family unit are reference numbers which are listed below with their reference data. These references are those which are used numerous times throughout this volume and can apply to any one or more of the family unit, and not necessarily to the head of the family unit. These references consist of publications, census records, church records, legal records, and family genealogical notes provided to the author by individuals. It is expected that these latter collections of family genealogical notes and the numbered data sheets which are currently in the possession of the author will be placed in some genealogical library for any future reference.

MASTER FILE AND INDEX

The Master File is a listing of every individual for which family records have been collected as of the writing of this genealogy. This listing includes names of many of our family whom at this time I cannot relate to our common ancestor, Hans Rüdisüli. Many of these records are fragmentary, and probably a number of them are duplications of others in the file. Therefore, not everyone in the Master File appears in the text portion of the book. Nevertheless, I felt that they should be included for several reasons. In many cases, I have collected considerable information about them and their decendants and may need only one more parent identification to relate an additional number of people to the rest of the family. It provides the reader with the knowledge of whether a given person has or has not been identified with our common progenitor and that there is some knowledge, albeit not complete, about that person or his or her ancestors.

It is my intention to maintain the Master File until a permanent home is found for it so that corrections and updates can be made to it on a continuing basis. Inquiries regarding individuals listed in the Master File are greatly facilitated when that person's Record Identification Number (RIN) is known.

Multiple page references occur when persons of the family intermarry. In a number of cases, the families resulting from the intermarriage may be reprinted in each of the family branches of the parents.

The Master File contains a number of columns for each individual listed. These are, in order from the left:

Name-Full name, including known given names and initials.

RIN-Record Identification Number. This is an arbitrary number assigned by the computer program that uniquely identifies each person in the file. It has no other meaning.

Born/Bpt.-Year of birth or baptism. If not known, it may be an approximation.

Parent MRIN-Parent's Marriage Record Identification Number. This is an arbitrary number that uniquely identifies the parental family group of the person.

Individual MRIN-This is an arbitrary number that uniquely identifies the family group of the person. If there are multiple marriages of an individual, the spouses will be shown in the order of their marriage sequence with their individual MRIN.

Spouse or Father's Name-Spouses names are given if the person married. If no marriage is reported, the name of the father is shown with an asterisk in front of the name.

Page-Page number of the text where the individual first appears in the text as described in the foregoing text.
